

Rhode Island Tutorial & Educational Services Summer Programs

What Parents Are Saying

"Rhode Island Tutorial is a professional organization seeking to assist students with reaching their academic potential. They care about each student and have the right answers to give parents the tools to guide their kids toward success. Many thanks!"

- OG-based Language Arts parent

"At first, my son didn't want to go, but after just a couple of days, he was all smiles and always said he had a great day."

- Elissa O'Brien,
OG-based Language Arts parent

"The RITES/Hamilton Program is one of a kind – where else can you get a program built for learning disabilities and ADHD? Thank you for existing – we are eternally grateful!"

- Heather Hart, Written Expression & Mathematics parent

"The RITES/Hamilton program was fun and engaging. My son learned important study skills to prepare him for middle school and he loved it!"

- Thamara Davis, Study Smarter, Not Harder with Written Expression parent

"We liked everything about the program – the knowledge and professionalism of the faculty and staff was top-notch!"

- Jennifer Neuguth,
OG-based Language Arts parent

"My child liked going to school each day and was enthusiastic and happy....and, she improved by the end of the program!"

- OG-based Language Arts parent

"The teacher was dead-on about my child's strengths and how we can improve her weaknesses."

- OG-based Language Arts parent

"I liked the small class and how the teachers really got to know my child."

- OG-based Language Arts parent

What Students Are Saying

"What I liked best was the help I got. It will help me with my reading more."

- OG-based Language Arts student

"I liked everything, especially Reader's Theater. You should do nothing differently next year."

- Advanced Language Arts student

"I liked making new friends while learning new spelling rules."

- Advanced Language Arts student

"I learned organization skills, how to write a research report, and a lot of other things. I now know I should take a binder that is organized everywhere I go to stay organized."

- Study Smarter, Not Harder with Written Expression student

"I learned many good new techniques and strategies that will be very helpful and help me succeed."

- Study Smarter, Not Harder with Written Expression student

"I'm sorry, but I liked everything – I learned tricks to help me remember –sion/ –tion for spelling, and VCV, VCe, VV, VCCV, and VCCCV syllable division."

- OG-based Language Arts student

"I liked everything – I learned about –ge vs. –dge for spelling. I wish we had even more of the movement part of the program."

- OG-based Language Arts student

Student is asked, "What did you like best?" The answer: "Movement, friends, teacher."

- OG-based Language Arts student

Student is asked, "What did you like best?" The answer: "Coming here and seeing a happy staff and a happy teacher."

- Study Smarter, Not Harder with Written Expression student

What Teachers Are Saying

"Everything went smoothly – parents, teachers and students were happy! This is such a well-organized, well-run program. I am so impressed with everything – wonderful staff and group of students. Thank you for this opportunity."

- OG-based Language Arts teacher, new to the program this year

"I really appreciated the opportunity to work with the RITES/Hamilton Summer Program. The teachers were fun to work with and the students worked hard and made great progress! Thank you for running such a well-organized, systematic and energetic program!"

- OG-based Language Arts teaching assistant, new to the program this year

"Everybody was very nice and helpful. OG is an amazing program with positive results. I was given a great opportunity to see how OG is taught, and I am truly grateful for that. I look forward to becoming OG-certified and having my own students some day."

- OG-based Language Arts teaching assistant, new to the program this year

"The program seems to improve every year, just from small tweaking. I liked the community-building, as well as the curriculum. The students are a family. The organization of the program and the sharing of ideas among the staff is wonderful."

- OG-based Language Arts teacher, veteran of many years

"I loved it! This is a great group of people – friendly, supportive supervision. This is an awesome environment and the children and I had a blast!"

- OG-based Language Arts teacher, new to the program this year